

Acknowledgements

We would like to express our gratitude to the dedicated team of contributors who made the development of this course possible. Your unwavering commitment, expertise, and creativity have transformed our vision into a comprehensive and impactful learning experience. From the subject matter experts who shared their knowledge to the content developers and editors who brought it to life and to the instructional designers who meticulously designed the user interface, each of you played a vital role in shaping this course. Your passion and dedication have enriched the educational landscape and empowered countless learners to acquire valuable skills and knowledge. Thank you for your exceptional contributions and for making the Black Health Primer a resounding success.

We extend our heartfelt appreciation to Dr. Onye Nnorom, one of the Co-founders of the Black Health Education Collaborative (BHEC) and the Chair of the Scientific Planning Committee, who served as the project leader and provided invaluable guidance, mentorship, and encouragement throughout the course development process. Your dedication, expertise, and attention to detail have been instrumental in ensuring the quality and relevance of the Black Health Primer.

We would like to express our gratitude and appreciation to the amazing writing team:

- Amisah Bakuri, PhD
- Deborah Baiden, PhDc
- Suleyman Demi, PhD
- Rosie Mensah, MPH, RD
- Ijeoma Nduka, MBBS, MSc., Public Health, FMCPH
- Clemence Ongolo-Zogo, MSc., MDc
- Samah Osman, BHSc.
- Martha Taylor, BA

We would like to acknowledge the support of all BHEC staff members who provided administrative, moral, and logistical support throughout the course development process:

- Javiera-Violeta Durán Kairies
- Raha Mahmoudi, MPH
- Zahra van Gaalen

Each team member brought a unique set of skills and perspectives to the table, and it was through our collaboration that we could create the Black Health Primer. Your contributions have not gone unnoticed, and we are truly grateful for your time and effort in this project.

We would like to extend our sincere appreciation and gratitude to our Post-Doctoral Fellow and Project Coordinator, Dr. Amisah Bakuri, for her exceptional leadership and dedication to developing this course. Your commitment to excellence served as an inspiration to the team and ensured that the course met the highest standards.

BHEC's Executive Director Prof. Sume Ndumbe-Eyoh's dedication, hard work, and expertise in guiding the staff have been invaluable to the success of this primer. Thank you to Samiya Abdi, BHEC's Interim Executive Director, for your supportive guidance, fruitful discussions, and practical suggestions. Additionally, we would like to thank our Program Manager, Rosie Mensah, for writing, reviewing, and editing several modules and supporting overall content development and project management.

Scientific Planning Committee

Thank you to our incredible Scientific Planning Committee members, your tireless effort and dedication to creating a comprehensive and effective course are highly commendable. We want to express our heartfelt thanks for your hard work and commitment to the success of the course.

Chair and Program Director: Dr. Onye Nnorom (MDCM, CCFP, MPH, FRCPC), BHEC Co-founder Assistant Professor, Dalla Lana School of Public Health & Temerty Faculty of Medicine, University of Toronto, Clinical Consultant, Nicotine Dependence Clinic, Centre for Addiction and Mental Health, Faculty Affiliate, The Centre for Research & Innovation for Black Survivors of Homicide Victims (The CRIB).

Members:

BHEC Leadership

- Dr. OmiSoore Dryden, BHEC Co-founder, James R. Johnston Endowed Research Chair, Black Canadian Studies, Faculty of Medicine; Interim Director, Black Studies Research Institute (in STEMM), Dalhousie University
- Ms. Samiya Abdi, (interim) Executive Director of BHEC

- Prof. Sume Ndumbe-Eyoh, Executive Director of BHEC, and an Assistant Professor in the Clinical Public Health Division at the Dalla Lana School of Public Health at the University of Toronto

BHEC Board Members

- Dr. Delia D. Douglas (MB), BHEC Board member, Director, Office of Anti-Racism, Rady Faculty of Health Sciences, University of Manitoba;
<https://umanitoba.ca/health-sciences/office-anti-racism>
- Dr. Barb Hamilton-Hinch, BHEC Board member, an Associate Professor in the School of Health and Human Performance and the Assistant Vice Provost Equity and Inclusion at Dalhousie University
- Dr. Kannin Osei-Tutu, BHEC Board member, Senior Associate Dean -Health Equity and Systems Transformation, Cumming School of Medicine, University of Calgary
- Dr. Gaynor Watson-Creed, BHEC Board member, Associate Dean of Serving and Engaging Society for Dalhousie University's Faculty of Medicine, and Chair of the Board of Engage Nova Scotia

External Members

- Ms. Khadija Brouillette, Black Medical Students' Association of Canada
- Dr. Anita Brown-Johnson, Assistant Professor of Family Medicine; Associate, Division of Geriatrics and Faculty of Dentistry, McGill University;
- Chief, Department of Family Medicine and Director, Secondary Care Division, McGill University Health Center
- Prof. Kimani Daniel, Assistant Professor, Ingram School of Nursing, Faculty of Medicine and Health Science, McGill University
- Dr. Frantz-Daniel Lafortune, MD, Chargé d'enseignement clinique chez Université Laval
- Dr. Lance McCready, Associate Professor, Department of Leadership, Higher and Adult Education at Ontario Institute for Studies in Education
- Ms. Aklil Noza, McGill MPH Student
- Ms. Julianah Oguntala, Chair, Black Medical Students' Association of Canada, Medical Student, Temerty Faculty of Medicine, University of Toronto
- Ms. Natasha Pigford, MSc.
- Ms. Hibo Rijal, Medical Student, Queen's University
- Ms. Bemnet Teferi, MPH, Research Analyst and Program Lead at The Michener Institute of Education at the University Health Network

- Ms. Victoria Turnbull, Education Director and Ontario Regional Director
Canadian Federation of Medical Students (CFMS, FMEQ)

Your scientific expertise and insights have been instrumental in designing a rigorous and engaging course. We would also like to acknowledge the countless hours you have devoted to reviewing and selecting the course materials and fine-tuning the primer. Your meticulous attention to detail and unwavering dedication has undoubtedly helped to shape the primer.

We would also like to thank our external reviewers, who generously shared their time, knowledge, and expertise to support the development of this course:

- Rebecca Aberra, Medical Student, McGill Medicine, Black Medical Students' Association
- Dr. Marcia Anderson, MD, MPH, FRCPC, Vice-Dean, Indigenous Health, Social Justice and Anti-Racism, Rady Faculty of Health Sciences, University of Manitoba
- Uzoma Asagwara
- Dr. Shamara Baidoobonso, Adjunct Faculty, Dalhousie University and Government of PEI
- Fallon Bennett, Temerty Faculty of Medicine
- Dr. Brieanne Olibris, PhD, MD Student, BMSAC
- Allysia Chin
- Sharon Davis, Murdoch, Health Association of African Canadians
- Dr. Mark Hanson, Hospital for Sick Children
- Josée Lavallée, BScN, RN, MSc., Director, Office of Social Accountability in Nursing Faculty Lecturer, Indigenous Health Ingram School of Nursing | École des sciences infirmières Ingram
- Dr. Nanky Rai, Family Physician, Parkdale Queen West Community Health Centre; Lecturer, Department of Family and Community Medicine, University of Toronto
- Dr. Saleem Razack, Department of Pediatrics, University of British Columbia
- Prof. Abraham Ninan, University of British Columbia
- Dr. Malika Sharma, MD MEd FRCPC, Staff Physician & Education Lead, Division of Infectious Diseases, St. Michael's Hospital, Assistant Professor, University of Toronto
- Dr. Suzanne Shoush, University of Toronto
- Prof. Arjumand Siddiqi, University of Toronto
- Dr. Natalie Stake-Doucet, McGill University and Université de Montréal
- Dr. Modupe Tunde-Byass, Black Physicians of Canada (President)

- Dr. Dorothy Williams
- Dr. Nikki Woods, Richard and Elizabeth Currie Chair in Health Professions Education Research at UHN, Institute Director, The Institute for Education Research (TIER)

We would like to thank the team at the Pallium Foundation of Canada, with a special mention to James O'Hearn, who contributed to developing the assessments, exercises, and activities, making them engaging and effective and for providing technical support and assistance in creating the multimedia components of this course. We are also grateful to the various people who facilitated the piloting of this course and provided valuable feedback and insights from the learners' perspective.

To all the contributors, thank you all for your unwavering support, dedication, and contributions. Your efforts have made the Black Health Primer a reality, and BHEC is honoured to have such a talented and committed team. Your support shows that the C in BHEC is there for a good reason. This work has indeed been collaborative.